CHURCH MATTERS.

At the Baptist Sunday School at Danville Sunday 312 answered to roll call. Evangelist A. S. Jeffries has just closed a meeting at Poplar Grove church in Casey which resulted in 33 additions.

The Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky is holding its 108th session at Lexington. Rev. Dr. W. H. Miley, of Louisville was elected Moderator.

The centennial celebration of the Disciples of Christ, in progress at Pittsburgh, is being attended by thousands of members of the denomination.

The Tinsley-Smith meeting closed here Sunday night with 32 additions, 24 by baptism. One lady was baptized who is 84 years old.—Liberty News.

Rev. Leonard W. Doolin, of Louisville, will assist the pastor, Rev. Roddy, in a protracted meeting which will begin at the Baptist church in Harrodsburg Nov. 1.

Eld. Joseph Ballou's subject at the Christian church Sunday morning will be "Fortune Telling." A large audience will likely greet Lincoln county's "grand old man."

Rev. Dr. Doaker, of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Louisville, was elected Moderator of the Kentucky Synod which opened its tenth annual session at Lexington Tuesday.

Rev. R. W. Binkley, of Weatherford, Tex., has accepted the call to the pastorate of the Eleventh-street Presbyterian church, Bowling Green, succeeding Rev. W. D. Hunter, who resigned to go to Tennessee.

The ladies of the Christian church sent their missionary society president, Mrs. A. E. Gibbons, as their delegate to the National Convention at Pittsburgh this week. This is a deserved compliment to Mrs. Gibbons, as she has served the society most faithfully for the past six years as president.—Advocate.

Tilford; Alternate, Eld. J. L. Owens. Sunday morning, Oct. 31: 9:00, Call to order and opening remarks by President, followed by devotional services. 9:30, Address of Welcome, W. S. Murphy, and Mrs. Laura Lee. 11:30, Report of Sunday School and Collection for Benefit of the Union. 1:15, Devotional Services. 1:30, The Master Teacher, State Secretary, Wm. J. Mahony and Eld. J. L. Owens. 2:00, The Country Sunday School: Its Educational Opportuniters, T. S. Benson; Its Organization and Equipment, Eld. Chas. Martin; Its Difficulties and Triumphs, Eld. K. G. Martin. 3:00, Should Union Literature be Used, If Not, Why Not? Elds. A. G. Coker and J. A. Singleton. 3:30, How All may Help in a Great Work, Secretary R. O. Daily. 3:45, Miscellaneous. 7:00, Eld. Wm. J. Mahony; Alternate, Eld. A. G. Coker. J. W. Acton, Program Committee.

OTTENREIM.

Sam Dudderar was in this section measuring rock.

J. D. Morgan has bought a portion of the Russell tract of land, about 148 acres.

The recent showers have been a great blessing as the ground was getting dry and water scarce.

F. L. Davis and Freil Dychouse have formed a partnership in the blacksmith business and will be prepared to do general work in that line, at moderate prices.

W. P. Kincaid, of Garrard, was in this section Friday inspecting tobacco and leaving bids on the weed, 12¢ being the highest price offered, but we have heard of no sales.

J. G. Terry and Dink Farmer were in this section last week electioneering, and have got the people confused who are not very well acquainted with them, as they resemble each other so much in appearance and voice that they are afraid to pledge their votes for fear they will pledge to the wrong man.

The Covington Board of Park Commissioners refused to accept the offer of a tract of 14 acres of land in Covington to be used as a park. Several months ago they were offered this land by Arthur Goebel, a wealthy Cincinnati merchant. Mr. Goebel told them in so many words that he wanted the park named for his brother, to be known as "The William Goebel Park," and said that he would improve it, would place buildings in the tract and would make the park one of the most beautiful in Northern Kentucky.

A tickling or dry cough can be quickly loosened with Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. No opium, no chloroform, nothing unsavory or harsh. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

The Magnolia flouring mill at Maysville burned, causing a $10,000 loss.

MIDDLEBURG.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Taylor died and was buried in Middleburg cemetery.

Rev. A. S. Jeffries closed a meeting at the Poplar Grove Baptist church Friday night with 37 additions to the church.

Prof. Charles Sullivan, of Cincinnati, will lecture at the Baptist church here Friday night. His theme, "Fads, Fashions and Faces" will likely draw a good crowd.

There will be a mass convention of the democrats of Middleburg and Walltown voting precincts at Yosemite next Saturday, Oct. 16, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for magistrate, to be voted for at the November election.

The county campaign seems to be dragging along quietly. Neither party seems to be as busy as it might be. It is presumed that the republicans think they have it, and the democrats think they can not get it, and so matters go easy with both.

There is a stock company being formed to extend the telephone line, known as the Farmers line, from C. Bastin's store, its present terminus, to this place. This will put us in touch with the Eastern and Southern part of the county, and also with points in Lincoln and Pulaski counties and will be of great convenience to our people and those on the line.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Young spent last week in Louisville attending the Bankers' Convention. W. T. Miller left Sunday for New Castle, Ind., to visit his sister, Mrs. Spurlin Sharp. Mrs. Jane Miller returned Friday from Constantine, Mich., after an extended visit to her son, W. M. Oska. Miss Bettie Walter, of Ilubbe, came home with Miss Nannie Adams and spent several days with her. Dr. J. M. Ilaney spent last week with his folks in Pulaski. Henry McAninch went to Louisville this week. Dr. J. M. Blair, of Russell county, republican nominee for the Legislature, was here looking over the field. The doctor did not impress any one very favorably, not even those of his own party; but he is a fair specimen of Legislative timber usually sent out by the republicans of Russell county. It is reported that he was "loaded for bear" or some other kind of game when he was here, but we did not investigate, hence we do not vouch for the truthfulness of the story. Dr. Blair may not be as brilliant as one would expect of a Representative, but has sense enough to draw his pay, and that is about all we are expecting of him.

For Prohibition.

Gen. Fred D. Grant is now a total abstainer and an advocate of prohibition of the liquor business. Here is an extract from his speech made at Chicago:

"Because I have seen that strong drink has been the cause of untold misery to individuals, to families and to communities, I believe that prohibition would be of inestimable benefit to this country and to the world," said Gen. Grant. "I am convinced that its honest enforcement would solve many of the social problems of the land. I have favored the cause of prohibition all of my life. Not that I have always been a total abstainer, for I have not been, although I am one now, but I have consistently believed that the liquor traffic was a source of evil. As my belief was strengthened by my own observations, I decided that the cause demanded more than passive acknowledgment of its truth. So I am an out-and-out prohibitionist."

Frightful Fate Averted.

"I would have been a cripple for life, from a terrible cut on my knee cap," writes Frank Disburs, Keilher, Minn., "without Bucken's Arches Salve, which soon cured me." Infallible for wounds, cuts and bruises, it soon cures burns, scalds, old sores, boils, skin eruptions. World's best for piles. 25¢ at Penny's Drug Store.

A Knoxville dispatch says that Mrs. Eliza Leftis, aged 65 years, a wealthy widow, has entered the public schools as a pupil in the first grade. She goes to school with her two grandchildren. She has learned her letters since school started and can figure to the rule of three.

They have arrested a fellow out at Pasadena, Cal., as a dangerous lunatic, where all he wanted to do was to tell Mr. Taft how to run the government. And there are thousands of them running at large.—Frankfort Journal.

Judging from the amount of enthusiasm displayed by the temperance people this early in the local option campaign, they must be preparing to wage a harder fight than they made in 1906.—Somerset Journal.

C. O. Hardin, superintendent of the mines of the Edgewood Company, was killed and seven other men were injured, two probably fatally, in an accident on an incline near Middlesboro.

DECEASED.—Edith Blanche Roberts died at her father's, S. G. Roberts' home at Maywood, Tuesday, Sept. 28, of typhoid fever after an illness of three weeks, and was buried at Highland Sept. 29 after Rev. Cook had made an appropriate address. Blanche was an earnest Christian, being a member of the Methodist Episcopal church at Highland. She departed this life, leaving in the memory of all who knew her as a kind and gentle girl. She, in the first of her illness, realized she was going to cross the great river called Death, and asked in her prayers for all her loved ones to meet her in the great beyond, saying: "If God calls I am ready." She leaves a father and mother and several brothers and sisters as well as a host of friends to mourn her departure. True it is said: "Gone but not forgotten." "Why weep for her who serenely to her final rest has passed, while the soft memory of her virtues yet linger like twilight hues when the bright sun has set?" F. G. W.

Is a candidate for Police Judge of Crab Orchard, subject to the action of the democratic party and asks your support.

PEARY is still trying to prove that Dr. Cook did not reach the North Pole and uses the testimony of two Eskimos used by Dr. Cook to show that he did not get out of the sight of land. Dr. Cook replies by saying that the Eskimos had kept faith with him concerning his instructions to them that they were not to reveal his discovery to Peary nor any of his party. The Brooklyn explorer declares that he will have the Eskimos that went with him to the pole in America next year and that they will verify every detail of his journeys in the polar regions.

EDITOR TIM NEEDHAM has sold the Williamstown Courier to R. L. Westover and S. M. Billiter, who have consolidated it with the Grant County News. Both of the latter are experienced newspaper men and will keep up the standard of the Courier. Mr. Needham, who has gotten rich out of the newspaper business, will now take things easy and enjoy life.

ONLY a little over two weeks remain until the November election. A great deal of work can be done for the grand old democratic party in that time. Get busy and do your share. Lincoln county ought to give a democratic majority of at least 500 and we shall expect her to do it.

SENATOR FLINT, of California, does not want to go back to the U. S. Senate because he is a poor man and feels that it is his duty to leave his family a competence should he be called suddenly hence. Evidently Senator Flint is not "on to" the ways of Washington.

WILLIAM TRAVERS JEROME has decided that the people of New York do not want him to continue as district attorney and has withdrawn from the race. His cruel treatment of Evelyn Thaw no doubt weakened him with the people.

CALEB POWERS will speak at Liberty at 1 P. M., Nov. 1. He could tell his hearers a good deal about the assassination of Gov. William Goebel but its dollars to doughnuts that he will not do so.

We deeply sympathize with Editor John G. Pulliam, of the Harrodsburg Herald, who was called on to take the life of a fellow man. We are confident that he was entirely justifiable.

LAUREL county has a democratic candidate for county judge named Angel. It would take a sure enough angel to overcome the big republican majority in that county.

POLITICAL.

Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill has announced for re-election. He has no opposition thus far.

Precinct conventions will be held in Bourbon county to-day to nominate a democratic candidate for schoolsuperintendent to succeed Prof. McCheeney, deceased.

William T. Davis, of Pineville, has announced for circuit judge of the 26th district against Judge M. J. Moss, who defeated him for the republican by about 600.

W. O. Smith, of Greenville, democratic nominee for Representative, has withdrawn from the race because he fears he will weaken the rest of the democratic ticket. He says unfounded reports have been started on him which will defeat him beyond doubt.

The republicans in Mercer county are experiencing trouble in keeping their candidates on the track. Five of the nominees have already withdrawn from the respective races, and more will likely follow. They must have seen the handwriting on the wall.—Advocate.

It has developed that L. T. Neat, the Republican nominee for State Senator in the 16th Senatorial district, is not eligible for the position should he be elected, by reason of his citizenship in New Mexico less than six years ago and the republicans will nominate another man.—Adair News.

Judge Anderson, of the United States District Court at Indianapolis, refused an order, applied for by the Department of Justice, for the removal of Delavan Smith and Charles R. Williams, proprietors of the Indianapolis News, to the District of Columbia for trial on the charge of criminal libel in the Panama Canal controversy. Judge Anderson's opinion was a scathing arraignment of the prosecutors, and he said the News' comments were justified by the facts.

Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, who was recalled from San Francisco as he was about to sail for Pekin to take up his duties as Minister to China, was practically dismissed by Secretary Knox. Mr. Crane wired his resignation to President Taft after being requested to do so by the Secretary of State. The Minister designate is accused of "talking too much" and letting out diplomatic secrets. In reply Mr. Crane gave out a scorching interview in which he intimates that the Department of State deliberately set about to bring about his retirement and insists that all he said was done with President Taft's approval and by the president's request. Interesting developments are expected to follow.

MATRIMONIAL.

John Adams and Miss Maggie Clark, each 21, were made one here on the 9th.

George Bastin and Miss Addie Lee Dawson were joined in wedlock's holy bonds at H. T. Dovison's yesterday.

Miss Rebecca Cox Johnson, oldest daughter of Congressman Ben Johnson, and Daniel Talbott, both of Bardstown, were married Tuesday.

PENNINGTON-LEE.—At the home of his aunt, Mrs. Hugh Reid, Miss Mary Paxton Pennington was married Wednesday afternoon to Mr. Lenus Virgil Lee, of Middlesboro. Owing to illness in the family the marriage was a very quiet affair, only about a dozen close friends and relatives being present. Dr. A. S. Moffett, of Lebanon, performed the ceremony and Dr. T. W. Pennington and Mr. J. Welch Roche stood with them while the marriage vows were being taken. The bride, who is one of the sweetest, prettiest and best girls in this or any other section, wore a traveling suit of blue broadcloth with hat to match. She was an exceedingly handsome bride and the man who had won her heart and hand had a right to feel proud of her. The groom, who is a fine young man, is a successful druggist of Middlesboro and a gentleman in all the word means. He is a brother of Mr. Frank Lee, well-known here, and like him is a man of model habits and excellent morals. He and his bride start out in life under most auspicious circumstances and here's hoping that never a cloud of trouble will overtake them. They left on the 5:27 train for Louisville and thence to Indianapolis, where they will visit the groom's sister. Before going to Middlesboro Mr. and Mrs. Lee will spend a short while at LaGrange, the groom's old home. A number of wedding presents were received by the contracting parties, attesting to some extent the high estimation in which they are held by their many friends.

A petition asking President Taft for clemency toward Charles W. Morse, the former banker, is being prepared for circulation among prominent business men and financiers of the East. Morse's attorneys are striving to have the United States Supreme Court grant him a new trial, but in case of defeat an Executive pardon will be his only means of escape from the sentence of 15 years' imprisonment recently affirmed by the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals.
